

LABOUR & EMPLOYMENT

Our Labour & Employment Practice strives for excellence in client service. Since the date of establishment, we have helped clients navigate the ever-changing landscape of Vietnamese laws that govern the workplace.

We have extensive experience in dealing with virtually every type of labour and employment issue that may confront a business. Whether your business is an emerging or established business, we partner with your business to achieve a competitive edge in a full range of labour and employment law issues that affect your business' "bottom line."

PRACTICE FOCUS AREAS

Labour Counselling and Litigation

Phuoc & Associates is recognized as seasoned counselors in the intricacies of the Vietnamese Labour Code and communication with the State agencies and courts that administer those laws.

Labour Management Relations and Labour Disputes

Our experience with and intimate knowledge of labour union activities make our legal experts invaluable in collective bargaining, strike/work-stoppage preparation and management, mediation.

Labour Counselling

We help our clients obtain the services they need to effectively manage complex and ever-changing legal, compliance and human resources challenges.

Labour Training Counselling

Phuoc & Associates Resources Workplace Training offers highly interactive training programs with the aim of translating business and legal standards into practical guidelines for participants.

