

LEGAL TRANSLATION

Phuoc & Associates has many years of experience in providing legal translation service in 2 languages (Vietnamese and English).

Services

Our legal translation service in bilingual (English and Vietnamese) is a response to the communication needs of our clients. We offer quality legal translation services for corporate and individual client as well as multinational companies located in Vietnam. As a result, many foreign and local companies rely on us to provide accurate and timely translations. In addition, we also offer certified legal document translation services which are accepted by the majority of Government agencies and courts in Vietnam.

Thanks to certified legal translators specializing in translation of registration documents, licenses, litigation, legal ruling, laws and regulations, affidavits, legal statements and certifications, depositions, witness and court transcripts, contracts, etc., we provide our clients with reliable support as they tackle complex local regulatory and legal systems in Vietnam and resolve complicated commercial and civil disputes.

Our team

We have a solid team of skilled legal translators who are up for a challenge. Whether it is a simple project or a large-volume bilingual project, bank on us for our expertise. Our legal document translators are carefully selected and tested. It ensures that only appropriate qualified editors, reviewers, and translators are applied to client assignments, therefore ensuring that even extremely complicated legal data is accurately conveyed. A few of our legal translators are lawyers who additionally hold language degrees. In addition, every translator has accessibility to legal translation dictionaries, glossaries, as well as industry specific terminology tools, which ensure that our legal translation is consistent and accurate across even the biggest projects.

